

Reflection: Developing and Using Clear Academic Objectives

Take a moment to reflect on if your plan is going to work.

Ask yourself the following questions:

Have you defined the objectives in observable, measurable terms?

Yes No

Are you ready to discuss the objectives with your students?

Yes No

Can you link the objectives to prior learning and/or to the purpose of the learning for the students?

Yes No

Have you linked objectives to future learning?

Yes No

Have you determined how you will measure progress?

Yes No

Are you ready to discuss with your students how progress will be measured?

Yes No

If you answered "No" to any of these questions, what can you do to address these concerns and ensure success?

Complete the following sentences in your own words:

It is important for me to make this happen in my classroom because...

I am confident that I can use clear academic objectives in my classroom because...