

Reflection: Student Interest Survey

Take a moment to make sure your plan is going to work.

Ask yourself the following questions:

Am I getting the information that I desire from the interest survey that I have chosen?

Yes No

Is my interest survey developmentally appropriate?

Yes No

Will I be able to use the information that I gather to develop authentic relationships with students?

Yes No

Will students have enough time to complete the survey in class?

Yes No

If I plan to assign the survey for homework, have I also set aside time for students to complete it if they do not do it at home?

Yes No

Have I set aside time to review the survey responses?

Yes No

If you answered "No" to any of the previous questions, what steps will you take to address the concern?

Complete the following sentences in your own words:

It is important for me to use interest surveys to build authentic relationships with my students because...

I am confident that I can effectively use interest surveys to build authentic relationships with my students because....