

Reflection: Teaching Behavior Expectations

Take a moment to make sure your plan is going to work.

Ask yourself the following questions:

Did I identify behavior expectations that are important and appropriate for my students and will allow them to be successful in my classroom?

Yes No

Do I have a plan for reviewing and practicing after I teach students the behavior expectations in my classroom?

Yes No

Are there some students who need more support and practice to learn behavior expectations? If there are, how can I provide this support?

Yes No

If you answered "No" to any of the questions above, what actions can you take to improve in this area?

Complete the following sentences in your own words:

It is important for me to make this happen in my classroom because...

I am confident that I can effectively teach my students the behavior expectations because...
